As per order of 11/5 Asstt Secretary 11/1/12

Here is no order defining the powers of the Chairmen of the various Committees in the matter of deputing Officers on tour whether within or outside the Province. The deputing Officer therefore requests the sanction of Govt. The Administration is competent to sanction such deputations as also the grant of an advance of Rs. under R 137 (1) C.A.C. The draft in the linked file may be added to Ex para sanctioning the advance desired.

—— As regards the establishment accompanying Mr Krishnadas, I may mention that ~~he~~ Mr K. Das was himself in the office today and told me that he had taken a clerk and one peon to Madras, and that the same establishment would be required during his tour in Travancore and Cochin. It is believed he has obtained the approval of the Chairman to this, and an addition has therefore been made in the draft sanctioning the taking of the establishment.

The draft put up in this file sanctions the grant of ~~the~~ advance applied for ~~to~~ by Mr Krishnadas, on behalf of himself and his establishment, for the tour.
